About Waubonsee Community College

Waubonsee Community College is a public, comprehensive community college that was organized in 1966 to provide education and training services for individuals in portions of Kane, Kendall, DeKalb, LaSalle and Will counties of District 516. With four convenient campus locations (Sugar Grove, Aurora, Copley, and Plano), unmatched facilities, and a distinctively dedicated faculty and staff, our students get the best of the western suburbs. Our philosophy is based on the premise that education is the cornerstone of a literate, democratic society; that learning is a lifelong process; and that the pursuit of knowledge must be supported by institutional policies that demonstrate the values of accessibility, service, value, quality and innovation. Waubonsee offers a variety of programs and services, including Transfer Programs, Career Programs, Adult Education, Business Training, Student Services, and Personal and Professional Learning. For more information, please contact the Office of Admission at (630) 466-7900, ext. 5756 or e-mail us at admissions@waubonsee.edu

About Roosevelt University

Roosevelt University is non-profit, private university named in honor of Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt with campuses in downtown Chicago and suburban Schaumburg, Illinois, along with online programs. Roosevelt's award-winning faculty and dedicated staff take pride in pushing Roosevelt's diverse students to the limits of achievement, inspiring the transformation of lives and communities through the principles of social justice and inclusion. Academic programs are offered in the humanities, sciences, social sciences, business, education, music, theatre, pharmacy and professional studies. Roosevelt is one of the Midwest's most diverse private universities. The student/faculty ratio is 12:1, average high school GPA of new students is 3.1 and average ACT is 22.6. Roosevelt's new 32-story "vertical campus" downtown features student housing, science labs, classrooms, and a fitness center. The Schaumburg Campus, a state-of-the-art facility near Woodfield Mall, is a fully commuter campus with ample free parking.
