Organization Name	Statement of Purpose	Advisor Name:	Advisor E-mail Address:
A.L.A.S. Association of Latin American Students	ALAS is the Association of Latin American Students at Roosevelt University. We are a group of people that promotes the Latino awareness and cultural richness through social and educational activities to teach fellow Roosevelt students that are unaware. In other words we are a group of people that share a common heritage and interest in the Latino community. We try to be the family or support system for Latinos at Roosevelt University, to provide members with academic and emotional support while also helping members to develop into strong intellectual adults with principles of social justice and awareness of our society.	Richard Uttich	ruttich@mail.roosevelt.edu
Alpha Gamma Delta	A women's fraternity who's purpose is to inspire the woman and impact the world. (Sidenote: Just to make sure but can we please be given a mailbox in the fall? I know it was a slight problem earlier this semester. Thank you!!)	Kim Gurnsey	agdbu.chapteradvisor@gmail.com
Inc. (Bota Chanter)	The mission of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated is to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards, to promote unity and friendship amongst college women, to study and help alleviate problems concerning girls and women in order to improve their social stature, to maintain a progressive interest in college life, and to be of service to all mankind.	Rita Brown	ribrown@roosevelt.edu
	The objectives of this Fraternity shall be: to stimulate the ambition of its members; to prepare them for the greatest usefulness in the causes of humanity, freedom, and dignity of the individual; to encourage the highest and noblest form of manhood; and to aid down-trodden humanity in its efforts to achieve higher social, economic and intellectual status.	Vince Perkins	vperkins@roosevelt.edu

Alpha Phi Omega Co-Ed Service Fraternity	Alpha Phi Omega is a national coeducational service organization founded on the principles of Leadership, Friendship and Service. It provides its members the opportunity to develop leadership skills as they volunteer on their campus, in their community, to the nation, and to the organization. With more than 400,000 members on over 375 campuses, Alpha Phi Omega continues to provide more service on more campuses than any other collegiate service organization.	Margaret Rung	mrung@mail.roosevelt.edu
Asian Student Alliance (ASA)	As the Asian Student Alliance(ASA), we seek to educate a community of individuals about the Asian culture. Through this we desire to enhance our voice on campus, as well as off campus. We wish to build friendships while promoting activities that pertain to the Asian culture and its diversity.	Freedom Nguyen	fnguyen01@roosevelt.edu
Black Student Union	As members of the Black Student Union, we desire to preserve and enhance a strong sense of community between Black students, and students of color, enrolled at Roosevelt University in commemorating Black heritage. We collectively represent the interests and concerns of Black students, faculty, and administration at Roosevelt University, through political, educational, social, and community service aspects. We discourage and abate institutional and individual acts and symbols of racism. We seek to heighten cultural awareness between all people, regardless of race, sex, religion, or national origin.	Alfred DeFreece	adefreece@roosevelt.edu
	C.O.R.E., Coalition of Responsible Education, is an alliance of student organizations, faculty members and the student body. Our organization brings transparency throughout the school from the administration and faculty level to the general population of students. Thus, by the collaboration between school organizations, C.O.R.E. sees itself at the center, in creating a forum for all school organizations to meet and build a network of alliances and assistance; by initiatives directed at maintaining Roosevelt University's social justice mission.	Jeffrey Edwards	jedwards@roosevelt.edu

Colleges Against Cancer	Colleges Against Cancer (CAC) is a nationwide collaboration of college students, faculty, and staff dedicated to eliminating cancer by working to implement the programs and mission of the American Cancer Society. With hundreds of chapters nationwide, CAC is showing the world that young people care and want to make a difference. Our chapter is a registered student organization at Roosevelt University, and we plan to make Relay For Life a legacy at our school.	Eric Kieft	ekieft@roosevelt.edu
Cru Roosevelt	A Christian organization on campus, dedicated to knowing, serving, and loving God, and spreading the good news of Jesus Christ!	Regina Buccola	rbuccola@mail.roosevelt.edu
Delta Gamma Pi Multicultural Sorority (Delta Epsilon Chapter)	The purpose of Delta Gamma Pi Multicultural Sorority is to create a diverse sisterhood with no restrictions in regards to race, religion, national origin, handicap or sexual preference, and to build an organization of women bound by tents of sister hood that are committed to multicultural awareness, personal success, and social improvements	Ellen O'Brien	eobrien@roosevelt.edu
Economics Club	The purpose of the Economics Club is to bring together students from multiple disciplines who share a common interest in economics.	Gary Langer	glanger@roosevelt.edu
Gamma Phi Omega International Sorority Inc.	We are a Latina-oriented organization that unites women through sisterhood. As an organization of professional young women we strive to excel academically, serve our community, raise cultural awareness and promote sisterhood.	Carina Santoyo	csantoyo@roosevelt.edu

Graduate Research Association of Students in Psychology (GRASP)	promoting a culture of scholarship and fellowship among Roosevelt graduate students who have more than a passing interest in research. Specifically, GRASP strives to provide opportunities for all graduate students who are conducting research or are interested in learning about research within and across their respective psychology disciplines. GRASP would provide an arena where students can share their experiences, share their research interests, find fellow collaborators, and learn from and with fellow students and faculty. GRASP would also sponsor activities and mini conferences aimed at excellence in research. GRASP seeks to promote the academic interests and intellectual, scholarly development of psychology graduate students at Roosevelt University by: Sponsoring an annual research mini conference for students at Roosevelt and other programs in the city Hosting workshops on thesis and dissertation proposals, grant writing, data collection and analyses, and colloquium presentations on diverse topics Providing an environment where students can socialize and network with others with similar interests Raising funds to support faculty and IRB approved student research in an effort to decrease the burden on students and faculty in conducting research Raising funds to provide travel assistance to members for	Dr. Cami McBride	camcbride@roosevelt.edu
Hospitality Student Association	We plan and coordinate activities to better ourselves for the future of the hospitality industry. Our mission is to make our services exceed the expectations of our guests and create a fun and enjoyable atmosphere for students who are just learning about the industry. New students are welcome to join and experience how fun and educating the group is.	Carol Brown	cbbrown@roosevelt.edu

Illume: Christian Artists at Roosevelt	We are a vibrant community of fine/performing artists who seek to grow in our relationship with Jesus Christ and others as we pursue our God-given gifts at Roosevelt University. We support one another through prayer, studying the Bible, and having discussions about how the Christian Faith and the arts intersect.	Aaron Kennedy	akennedy@roosevelt.edu
National Soceity of Collegiate Scholars: Roosevelt Chapter (NSCS @ RU)	NSCS at Roosevelt University is an honor societyinviting high- achieving first and second year students. Members must rank in the top twenty (20) percent of theirclass. NSCS exists to recognize and elevate high-achievers.	Cornelius Watson	cwatson@roosevelt.edu
Peer Mentor Organization	Peer Mentor Leaders promote the academic development and social interactions within the RU community, as well as promote interactions among RU students in social aspects of the college experience.	Erika Huber	ehuber@roosevelt.edu
Pre-Professional Club	The purpose behind the Pre-Proffesional club is to provide its members, who's future career plans are geared toward the medical field, with opportunities such as volunteering, shadowing, and leadership skills. Members can also expect to become equipped with the necessary tools and knowledge to succeed in their future goals.	Kelly Wentz-Hunter	kwentzhunter@roosevelt.edu
Proclaim Gospel Choir	Love to sing but can't commit to it as a major? Well come join the 1st Place Award Winning Proclaim Gospel Choir where we all unite out voices to sing Inspirational/Gospel Music. Join us in giving praise and having fun. Have another talent that we can use such as playing an instrument? Don't worry, there's a spot for you too!	Pamela Thompson-Hill	pthompsonhill@roosevelt.edu
Psi Chi	Psi Chi is the International Honor Society in Psychology, founded in 1929 for the purposes of encouraging, stimulating, and maintaining excellence in scholarship, and advancing the science of psychology. Membership is open to graduate and undergraduate men and women who are making the study of psychology one of their major interests, and who meet the minimum qualifications. Psi Chi is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies and is an affiliate of the American Psychological Association (APA) and the Association for Psychological Science (APS). Psi Chi's sister honor society is Psi Beta, the national honor society in psychology for community and junior colleges.	Jill Coleman	jcoleman@roosevelt.edu

-
Psych In Action	RU PsychInAction: Psychology Club wants to enrich the experience of every student interested in psychology at Roosevelt. We strive to help individuals discover different careers influenced by psychology, to get to know your fellow students and members, and create a positive impact in the community around you. We strive to provide students with experience of working with different populations that allowing for involvement and internship opportunities. Knowing psychology can contribute to knowing yourself, and is beneficial to all who are on this pursuit.	Dr. Melissa Sisco	msisco01@roosevelt.edu
R. U Fashion: For the Clothes Minded	Our mission is to encourage people with fashion and show that fashion is not size, race, or shape biased.	Sarah Willis	swillis@roosevelt.edu
Real Life Networking	To achieve and improve the social and cultural interaction on Roosevelt's Chicago's campus and student's networking with students from various schools in the Chicago loop area.
	RISE builds student activist networks on campus, empowers Roosevelt students to organize around the issues that are important to them, and provides resources, education, and training to ensure that student movements are successful. RISE is a rejection of student apathy and a call for leadership, authenticity, and action.	Megan Bernard	mbernard@roosevelt.edu
Roosevelt Counseling Association (RCA)	The mission of the Roosevelt Counseling Association is to support the professional development and foster the personal growth of Roosevelt counselors as graduate students and emerging professionals	Kristina Peterson	kpeterson
Roosevelt Industrial Organizational Psychology Association (RIOPA)	Our purpose is to create an enviroment that fosters professonal development for Industrial Organizational Psychology students and provides the resources for our students to be successful in future endeavors.	Guy Di Spigno	gdispigno@roosevelt.edu
Roosevelt University Torch	The Torch is Roosevelt University's student newspaper, providing students, faculty and staff with a weekly update of campus happenings.	Billy Montgomery	bmontgom@roosevelt.edu

Roosevelt Veterans	To build and maintain a community of Roosevelt University students, staff, faculty, and alumni, all who have served in the US military, that supports a seamless transition from military life to civilian college life and provides support for continued growth in mind, body, and spirit, carrying the pride and confidence established in the military into the college experience as well as future careers for veteran alumni.	Pete LaHaie	plahaie@roosevelt.edu
RU Chapter of Moneythink	Moneythink offers ten-week financial literacy and entrepreneurship courses for urban high school students that focus on building critical life skills like money management, leadership, and goal setting. The courses are taught by undergraduate college students who are mentors, not teachers, and whose privileged position allows them to transcend the age barrier to build a relationship of trust.	Sara Linton	slinton@roosevelt.edu
RU Dance Team	RU Dance Team is an entertainment team that specializes in a variety of dance styles focusing mainly on hip-hop. Our purpose is to entertain and build school spirit for RU students, faculty, and staff.	Devon Hall	dhall@roosevelt.edu
RU Math Club	Our purpose is to seek the enrichment and unity of life through Mathematics.	Wilfredo Urbina-Romero	wurbinaromero@roosevelt.com
PII PPOLID	RU Proud is Roosevelt University's LGBTQIA group. We define ourselves as the queer organization on campus in order to make the growing acronym list shorter and be more inclusive to all identities. We are a social network that allows all students to come together to learn about the queer community and be involved in events, celebrations, activism, and fun programs. We focus on ensuring that RU is a LGBTQI friendly environment, and we do this through on campus activism and educational (but fun!) events. Our meetings are a safe space where everyone respects one another. All are welcome to join us!	Carrie Brecke	cbrecke@roosevelt.edu

RU-SHRM	Mission To serve as a gateway into the human resource profession by encouraging personal and career growth for our student members. All students studying Human Resource Management, Training and Development, Industrial/Organizational Psychology, and other Management disciplines can benefit from this organization. Objectives Provide a support network for HR students and professionals To increase student and alumni involvement in a shared interest To provide career development and job acquiring assistance To share and gain knowledge of HR principles and practices	Dr. Carolyn Wiley	cwiley@roosevelt.edu
S.I.S.T.E.R.S.	The purpose of S.I.S.T.E.R.S. is to foster positive interactions among women. Under our leadership we seek to further the cultural, spiritual, emotional, and soulful understanding of and among women. We serve the campus community and surrounding areas through our activities. We also serve as a support system that encourages women empowerment.	Pamela Thompson-Hill	pthompsonhill@roosevelt.edu
Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority (Beta Rho Chapter)	Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority's aim is to enhance the quality of life within the community. Public service, leadership development and education of youth are the hallmark of the organizations programs and activities. Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority addresses concerns that impact society educationally, civically and economically.	Lucille Banks	lbanks@roosevelt.edu
Student Honors Organization	The Student Honors Organization is a group for students in the Honors Program at Roosevelt University. The group aims to create a space for Honors Students and faulty to work towards creating connections to resources for students.	Megan Bernard	mbernard03@roosevelt.edu

Students for Justice in Palestine	Students for Justice in Palestine (SJP) at Roosevelt University is a diverse group of students, faculty, staff, and community members organized on democratic principles to promote justice, human rights, liberation, and self-determination for the Palestinian people.	David Faris	dfaris@roosevelt.edu
Students for Sensible Drug Policy - Roosevelt Chapter	Students for a Sensible Drug Policy is a non for profit student organization. Students for Sensible Drug Policy is an international grassroots network of students who are concerned about the impact drug abuse has on our communities, but who also know that the War on Drugs is failing our generation and our society. We are the only international network of students dedicated to ending the war on drugs. At heart, SSDP is a grassroots organization, led by a student-run board of directors. We create change by bringing young people together and creating safe spaces for students of all political and ideological stripes to have honest conversations about drugs and drug policy. Founded in 1998, SSDP comprises thousands of members at hundreds of campuses in countries around the globe. SSDP mobilizes and empowers young people to participate in the political process, pushing for sensible policies to achieve a safer and more just future, while fighting back against counterproductive Drug War policies, particularly those that directly harm students and youth.	Kathie Kane-Willis	kkane@roosevelt.edu
The National Society of Leadership and Success	Collegiate leadership honor society	Jennifer Jones	jjones17@roosevelt.edu
Transfer Connection	Transfer Connection seeks to support transfer students academically, financially, and socially.	Jennifer Jones	jjones17@roosevelt.edu
Wabash Community Council	The Wabash Community Council advocates, recognizes, and programs for the residents of the Wabash Building and students of Roosevelt University.	Matt Smith	msmith71@roosevelt.edu