The mission of the Office of Residence Life is to create a safe, happy, and inclusive community that supports academic success and personal growth.

VISION

The vision of the Office of Residence Life is to enhance the living-learning environment for residents to help them reach their fullest potential.

MISSION

The mission of the Office of Residence Life is to create a safe, happy, and inclusive community that supports academic success and personal growth.

CORE PRINCIPLES

The Office of Residence Life supports the academic and social justice mission of Roosevelt University. We focus on 5 main areas that we believe will provide our residents the most benefit and keep us focused on achieving our mission. We believe in:

Academic Success

We maintain an academic environment that enhances and supports student learning. We partner with academic units and campus departments to deliver programs and resources to residents.

Personal Growth and Development

We invest in students' personal development through informal conversations, structured out-of-class activities, and opportunities for demonstrating leadership. We encourage students' development of problem solving skills and self-advocacy in order to be successful in an inter-dependent community.

Embracing Diversity

We strive to affirm the dignity of all individuals and to treat one another with respect, compassion, and understanding so that we may learn from each other's experiences.

Healthy Relationships

We foster healthy relationships by enriching connections with one another and developing communication skills through facilitated and intentional conversations and experiences.

Living Green

We understand that our future is dependent on how we live our lives in the present and encourage students to recycle and reduce resource consumption. We embrace the motto to "Go Green, Live Green!"

STATEMENT ON COMMUNITY LIVING

In support of the ORL mission, standards of behavior have been established to promote cooperation, respect, and orderliness within the Wabash Building (WB). These standards of behavior apply to all residents, community members, and guests while in the Wabash community and surrounding property, or while participating in ORL sponsored activities.

When you apply to live in the WB you are choosing to be a member of this community and therefore are bound by the responsibilities and rights of this membership. It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of and abide by the handbook regulations. These regulations have been developed to support the mission of the Office of Residence Life.

Residents are considered to be maturing adults, capable of making their own decisions, as well as accepting the consequences for those decisions. The conduct process has been established to respond to incidents involving inappropriate behavior within our community. This process provides educational opportunities which encourage students to evaluate their own actions, consider their own decision making, and acquire new skills to improve their choices in the future.

The WB is an exciting place to live, especially when each resident assumes his or her share of community responsibility. RU residents come from many areas of the city, state, country, and world. All are in the midst of academic pursuits at the undergraduate, graduate, or professional levels. In this unique community, residents are rich in knowledge and diversity. RU encourages interaction among residents to make the most of this cooperative and interactive learning opportunity.

With so many residents living in such close proximity to each other, conflicts of various types are possible and common. Residents are encouraged to know suitemates and neighbors in order to facilitate a quick and amicable resolution to conflicts that may occur. Understanding different individual lifestyles forms the foundation of a mutually respectful environment for everyone.

Within any environment, reasonable limits and community standards must be established. Policies within the RU community have been established in the interest of residents (and all others who visit or work within the building), for the preservation of the facilities for future generations and to comply with health, safety and other regulatory expectations.

Therefore, the staff of the WB:

- are concerned with the rights and safety of all residents, visitors and employees
- Limit the physical alterations and use of the facility by residents
- Establish reasonable limits on activities and behaviors
- Enact policies to achieve these purposes and to comply with local, state, and federal fire, safety, health, and code requirements

Living within such a vibrant, academic community is indeed enriching, but also necessitates compromise between individual and community needs. When these needs are in conflict with each other, the needs of the community take precedence. Therefore, RU strives to provide residents with an environment that is conducive to studying and sleeping, especially during established quiet hours, as well as a clean and safe environment in which to live. In addition, RU provides an avenue for residents and staff to address concerns and violations of this handbook.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

Roosevelt University complies with the FERPA Act of 1974. All records maintained by Roosevelt University regarding a resident are considered “student records”. Residence Life will not disclose directory or other information about residents without prior written consent, unless otherwise required by law.

THE CLERY ACT: CRIME STATISTICS REPORTING

Roosevelt University staff will report all felonies and serious misdemeanors that are reported or observed to the Chicago Police Department (CPD). For lesser misdemeanors, victims are encouraged and assisted by the staff to report the crime to the CPD. All known crimes occurring within the premises or within a reasonably contiguous geographic area shall be reported by RU staff to be included in its crime statistics report, in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act 20U.S.C. 1092(f).

RU staff commit to maintaining safety and security within the Roosevelt University community.

Emergency Telephone Numbers

The safety of residents and the building is always forefront in the minds of Roosevelt University staff. This is why a special publication titled Safety and Security at Roosevelt University has been provided to every resident at move-in. Please become familiar with the safety features and procedures for our community before an emergency arises! We are pleased to have you as a resident, and hope that all residents will put forth the cooperative effort necessary to enhance the safety and security for everyone at Roosevelt University.

Fire Safety

Due to the design of the building, it is rare that a facility-wide evacuation will take place. If residents hear an alarm sound, they should immediately take the stairs to the exits on the 1st floor and evacuate the building. The staff will then work with Emergency Personnel to ensure that their residents' safety is maintained. Fire drills are conducted throughout the year to ensure residents and guests are familiar with the fire safety procedures. Failure to evacuate during a fire drill or an actual fire can be cause for disciplinary action.

Safety Recommendations

- Record the number of all credit cards and bank accounts. Also, keep the phone numbers of these companies and banks so you can notify them if your cards or checks are lost or stolen.
- Keep money and valuables in a secure place.
- Do not keep excess amounts of cash in your room.
- Be alert to the presence of strangers in non-public areas (all resident floors) and report their presence to the Roosevelt University Security Desk, the Office of Residence Life, and/or any staff member. Solicitors claiming to have authorization will have signed documentation on Roosevelt University letterhead and will present photo-identification upon request.
- Keep your suite locked whenever you leave, even if you intend to return momentarily.
- In the event that you are a victim of a theft, notify the Roosevelt University Security Desk or any staff member immediately. You may also contact the Chicago Police Department.
- Insist on seeing identification for any person you do not know seeking access to your room.
- Do not leave messages on your door or voicemail indicating when you are not in your room.
- Keep a list of emergency contacts on your person at all times.

Personal Property Insurance

Roosevelt University does not assume responsibility for theft, damage or loss of money, valuables or personal property of any kind belonging to any resident or guest. You should check with your insurance provider regarding the extent of coverage under existing policies, which you may carry. All residents are strongly encouraged to carry sufficient personal property or renter's insurance to afford the level of protection desired, if they are not already covered under any other personal/family policy.

Community Responsibility

It is important that all members of the community remember that, in conjunction with the protection afforded by Roosevelt University security, all residents share responsibility for overall safety at Roosevelt University. Residents and staff are expected to promptly and accurately report any and all criminal acts, dangerous situations, or suspicious behavior.

HOUSING PROCEDURES

Assignments

Room assignments and corresponding rates are based on full occupancy of each room, suite or apartment, which ranges from one to five residents. Residents who occupy space below the designed capacity will be assigned additional roommates if available, or must promptly move to fill other vacancies to avoid additional housing charges. For more information, refer to the “consolidation” policy. ORL will not make assignments based upon race, sexual orientation, national origin, religion or ability. ORL staff may assign and reassign residents to other accommodations within the building to provide repairs or improvements or as are otherwise necessary for the efficient operation and/or protection of people or of the premises. A resident may be reassigned to another space if he/she fails to check-in and/or occupy the original space unless prior written authorization is provided by Roosevelt University ORL.

Residents who wish to inquire about a room change are welcome to check with the Office of Residence Life. Generally, requests for room changes are not processed during August or during the first three weeks following the start date of the housing agreement/contract that each resident has entered into with his/her institution of record (hereinafter referred to as “Agreement”).

Unit Access

The privacy of each resident’s unit is genuinely respected. However, entry into a unit is sometimes necessary for the following purposes:

- in response to a requested or required facility service
- to perform fire, life and safety inspections
- in response to an apparent emergency or danger to a person’s welfare or to the building or personal property
- in response to a reasonable cause that a violation of policies or law is in progress
- to show the unit to contractors or prospective residents
- to assist law enforcement officers in the performance of statutory duties and in accordance with legally defined procedures governing search and seizure.

Entry will be arranged in advance or by invitation with one or more of the occupants when applicable. If reasonable arrangements are impractical or refused, non-emergency entry will be made upon prior 24 hours posted notice. A “Posted Notice” will generally be near floor elevators and/or other central locations when access is needed to many units on certain floors, or on specific suite entrance doors when access to only a few units may be required. Please note that when residents submit work orders for their units, unless otherwise specified, such submittal is an invitation by the resident for service staff to enter and respond to the problem as soon as possible.

Care of Facilities

Residents are expected to maintain their units to high standards of cleanliness and exercise reasonable care for the facilities. Routine cleaning in all units should include bathrooms, showers, and fixtures, regular sweeping of floors, and full cooperation with the building’s pest control program. Alterations to the premises are prohibited. This includes but is not limited to: installing locks, ceiling fans or electrical, voice or data outlets; erecting partitions; or attaching anything to ceilings, walls, floors or exteriors, without the prior written consent of Roosevelt University Office of Residence Life. Residents must pay for any damage (less reasonable wear) within their units, including but not limited to, repainting, extraordinary cleaning costs and replacement for any missing or broken items. Nothing may be placed in a manner that would block, mask or obscure a sprinkler head or smoke/heat detector. If deemed necessary, residents may be charged for any work completed.

Check-in and Check-out Procedures

- a. At check-in, each resident is issued a key, a mailbox combination, and a Room Condition Form (RCF). It is the resident’s responsibility to carefully examine his or her unit and its contents to indicate on the report the absence of any appliances or furnishings, to note any damage to the unit and to describe the general condition of each room, and then to return the signed report to a resident staff member or the Office of Residence Life within 24 hours of move-in. Residents will not be held responsible for conditions, damages, or shortages that exist prior to the time he/ she assumed occupancy, provided these items are noted in a timely fashion on the Room Condition Form (RCF). If, at the time of move-out, damages have occurred, the resident is responsible for the cost and will be billed for the damages and/or missing items.

If the room condition form has already been completed by ORL staff prior to check-in, the resident is responsible to report any damages not noted on the RCF within 24 hours of check-in.

- b. Residents may request a move in date that is earlier than their published move in day and time. Early move in requests must be made 72 hours in advance. There is a $75 per night early move in fee.

Check-out Procedures

Residents are expected to schedule an appointment with a Resident Assistant (RA). The resident will fill out the appropriate paperwork and turn in his/her key. The RA will go through the entire unit with the resident and then collect the appropriate paperwork and key. In the event that it is not possible to complete an appointment and a standard check-out, please contact the Office of Residence Life before leaving to make alternate arrangements. Note that moving out or being absent from Roosevelt University or your unit does not reduce your financial obligations as outlined in your Agreement.

All resident belongings must be removed from the apartment, the bathroom cleaned, and furniture arranged as it was upon arrival, prior to check-out with staff. Additionally, all keys must be returned and the Room Condition Form (RCF) must be signed and dated.

Each room will be inspected by the management staff members for damages and cleaning charges. If damages or cleaning issues are found, a fee will be assessed. All damages will be split equally between roommates/suitemates, unless written notification by the responsible party is provided to their RA before their scheduled move-out day.

Residents are held responsible for any changes in room condition (damages, missing items, etc.) which were not reported or did not exist at the time of move-in. All residents are given the opportunity to report pre-existing conditions to their room via the Room Condition Form provided to them upon move-in.

Failure to check out properly will result in a $150 administrative fee for the improper check-out. All cleaning, painting and damage charges will reflect actual expenses. [No “fines” are involved.] Typically, should a bathroom shower/tub require deep cleaning, an additional charge of $50 is assessed.

Please note that private property left after vacating or upon the expiration of the Agreement will be considered abandoned and will be disposed of at the expense and risk of the resident, including bicycles left in the bike storage facility. Each resident must check out no later 24 hours after their final exam. Residents who do not move out by the end of the contract term may be assessed a $250 per day/night holdover fee.

Consolidation

Rates listed on the Agreement are based on full occupancy in each unit. Therefore, any resident who does not have a full complement of roommates is automatically placed in “consolidation” if ORL is unable to fill the vacancy by a new or wait-listed applicant. If you do not have a full complement of roommates, ORL reserves the right to consolidate you and/or your unit with others in the same or similar situation.

*Should you fall under the consolidation policy; ORL will notify you of your options and the consolidation procedures to move into a different room.

Eligibility Requirements

Residents are expected to maintain eligibility at Roosevelt University during the academic year. Per contract eligibility requirements, residents who fail to maintain eligibility must inform ORL within 48 hours and are subject to cancellation charges. The exception to this rule is that residents do not need to be enrolled during the summer term.

Excessive damages or any violation of Roosevelt University policies, procedures, accepted community standards, or the Housing Agreement may result in a resident losing his/her eligibility for housing at Roosevelt University. Students removed from Roosevelt University through disciplinary action are subject to all normal cancellation charges and are not eligible to reapply to Roosevelt University without written permission from the Director.

Length of Agreement

The dates of occupancy are specified in the contract that residents have signed. The length of all contracts is binding. Rates cannot be adjusted for late arrival. Requests for extensions, if approved, will be at prevailing rates on a pro-rated basis.

Winter Break

Students must notify the Office of Residence Life in writing if they are planning to be in the building during any part of the winter break while classes are not in session.

During the university winter break residents may only check in one guest at a time. Residents may request permission to have more than one guest through the Office of Residence Life. Requests must be made at least three business days in advance.

Meal Plans

The Wabash standard and deluxe Meal Plan and University Center meal plans provides access during the academic year while classes are in session for each resident. Hours of operation, effective dates of the Meal Plan, and days of operation will be provided upon move-in and posted at each Dining Center.

Students with special dining needs may contact the Dining Managers to discuss all dietary options available.

The dining dollar balance on the meal plan rolls over from fall to spring. Students must use all of the remaining balance prior to the end of the semester. Any remaining balance on the meal plan will not be refunded, so students are encouraged to use every dollar of their meal plan.

Meal Plan Cancellations

Meal Plans are for the entire length of the agreement. Residents requesting to cancel a required meal plan (including canceling housing, transferring to other campus housing or changing unit types to an apartment where a meal plan is not required) should refer to Roosevelt University Meal Plan policies for process and/or fees. Residents may be responsible for meal plan charges through the end of the term and/or contract length and may be subject to a cancellation fee.

Filming Requests

The Wabash Building or any locations within the building or in the immediate exterior cannot be used in a film without written approval from the Roosevelt University administration.

Lockout Policy

A resident who is locked out of his/her unit or individual bedroom may request lockout service at the Office of Residence Life or the Campus Safety Desk. This service is complimentary the first three (3) lockouts per semester. Beginning with the fourth lockout during a semester, a service charge of $5.00 will apply and each time thereafter. All lockout fees are posted on student accounts.

Lost Keys

Residents who lose, misplace, or damage a key will be responsible for full replacement cost for corresponding locks and new keys. The cost for replacing a lost key is $50.00. All charges will be posted on your student account. Only the resident who lost the key will be charged (other residents in the suite will receive replacement keys free of charge).

Notice to Vacate

The Office of Residence Life is notified when students have delinquent financial accounts. Students need to first work with the Office of Financial Aid and the Student Accounts office to set up a payment plan and review their account status. Students who do not fulfill their financial obligation will receive 72 hours to vacate their on campus housing.

Students that are involved in disciplinary matters may receive a notice to vacate. The notice to vacate will depend on the circumstances of the conduct and can include immediate removal.

Release of Resident Information

Except for information required in the performance of the duties of Roosevelt University staff, room assignment and roommate information will only be released in writing to assigned residents and their roommates, and when required by law.

All inquiries for directory information must be directed to the resident's respective school. In the event of an emergency, notification of a resident's emergency contact may occur based on the policies and procedures of his or her respective school (See FERPA Policy on page. 6)

Housing Regulations

As an On Campus Housing resident you are responsible for abiding by the On Campus Housing Regulations as well as the Roosevelt University Student Conduct Code. COMMUNITY STANDARDS ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

Statement of Purpose

The development of community standards for a compassionate, respectful, civil community of individuals is central to residential living. The preceding policies, procedures and community standards of acceptable conduct assist the creation of a residential environment conducive to personal and educational development.

The ability to effectively address unacceptable behaviors and conduct in an educationally based residential setting provides recourse for students, staff and community members to participate in the maintenance of standards established for the community.

Each member of the community bears responsibility for the creation of a compassionate, respectful, civil community. By voluntarily joining the Roosevelt University community, each resident is expected to be in compliance with all policies, rules and procedures, and accepted community standards at Roosevelt University. Additionally, each resident also remains subject to the institutional policies, rules, procedures and standards at all times. Information about student responsibilities may be found on the following link:

Roosevelt University

Authority and Jurisdiction

Roosevelt University residents are responsible for their individual behavior, behavior of their guests, and the collective development of the residential community. Staff are authorized to address concerns and violations through the enforcement of residential policies and procedures relative to Wabash premises, or that otherwise directly affect the Roosevelt University community and the pursuit of its goals. ORL has the authority to determine whether an act or circumstance, individually or collectively, adversely affects the interests of the Roosevelt University community.

Additionally, ORL may assign appropriate sanctions and/or take actions to appropriately address concerns and violations, including room and/ or property inspections, confiscation and disposal of prohibited items and any other policy violation.

While every effort will be made to provide residents with complete, accurate and timely information, Roosevelt University ORL reserves the right to change, amend, modify or revoke any policy or procedure contained in this document, with or without notice. In the event of questions, final interpretation of the policies and procedures applicable to Roosevelt University is the responsibility of the Director in consultation with the Director of Community Standards and the Assistant Provost for Student Affairs.

Enforcement Procedures

The Director and Assistant Director of Residence Life (ADRL) are responsible for the Community Standards and Enforcement Procedures.

Processes utilized to address inappropriate behavior and violations of policies and procedures are not intended to replicate a court of law. Federal, state and local procedural rules do not apply. All decisions and actions are based on the facts presented. Rules of common courtesy are followed at all times and meetings are not open to those not involved in the review process. Dates established in the procedures below may be adjusted to account for academic schedule, breaks, or unforeseen scheduling conflicts at the discretion of the Director or ADRL.

While every effort will be made to honor the process, the Director and ADRL reserve the right to take immediate and appropriate action outside these procedures to address situations and behaviors that are significantly disruptive to the community or pose an imminent threat to the safety of any individual or others including temporary removal of residents from the Roosevelt University community.

The following components comprise the process for review of reported concerns or violations:

Reporting Process

Any person may file an Incident Report documenting inappropriate behavior, violations of policies and procedures and/or incidents that occur in or around Roosevelt University. Incident Reports may be filed by working with an RA or a staff member in ORL.

Assessment of Roosevelt University Incident Report Form

The Director or Assistant Director of Residence Life will assess the Incident Report Form and the documented incident. Conflicts between residents may be addressed without formal action through the assistance of a staff member. However, if the situation warrants, an investigation of the documented incident and the circumstances will continue.

Formal Notification

If formal notification of the individual named on the Incident Report Form is deemed necessary, the Office of Residence Life will notify the individual named on the Incident Report Form in writing. The notification may:

- Inform the individual of policies, procedures and behavioral expectations with no further action;
- Inform and warn the individual of the alleged inappropriate behavior with no further action; or,
- Inform the individual of the report, any allegations, and request a formal meeting with the Graduate Residence Hall Coordinator or Assistant Director to be scheduled. Failure to schedule this meeting as directed may result in a decision made in absentia.

Formal Meeting

The Graduate Residence Hall Coordinator or Assistant Director will meet with the individual to inform him/her of the documented behavior and provide an opportunity to share his/her side of the incident. After the initial meeting, the GRHC's and ADRL have the authority to:

- Allow additional time for further investigation at the discretion of the administrative reviewer;
- Find the individual not responsible with no further action; or,
- Find the individual responsible and assign appropriate sanction (s). Previous behavior/status and seriousness of the infraction will be considered when assigning sanctions.

Failure to appear at a scheduled review may result in a decision made in absentia. All decisions made through administrative review are considered immediately enforceable and sanctions are in effect whether or not an appeal is submitted, and throughout the appeal process. An appeal may be submitted under specific guidelines (see "Appeal Process" below).

Sanctions involving suspension of occupancy privileges or termination of the student's Agreement are automatically directed to the Director of Community Standards and Engagement for appeal. The DCSE will make the final determination of the appeal, including removal from Roosevelt University. Failure to complete or comply with any sanction or requirement within the designated time frame may result in additional review action.

Appeal Process

Upon receipt of written notification, a sanctioned individual may appeal the decision of a Graduate Residence Hall Coordinator, the Assistant Director of Residence Life, or the Director in writing within three (3) business days. To qualify, an appeal must be based upon either of the following conditions:

- The sanctions are thought to be disproportionate to the offense
- New and significant information has become available which was not available before the original decision was rendered

The appeal request must explain, in detail, the reasons for the appeal. The Director of Community Standards and Engagement or a designee from the Division of Student Affairs will review requests and render a decision on the appeal in a timely manner.

The DCSE or the designee may deny the request for an appeal should conditions not be met. If the appeal is granted, the DCSE or designee will meet with the student to review the basis for the appeal. At the discretion of the DCSE or designee, witnesses may be called. The DCSE or designee may:

- reduce any sanction(s);
- dismiss the original decision;
- affirm the original decision;
- assign additional sanctions up to and including removal from the Roosevelt University
